Capgemini honored with 2008 SAP Pinnacle Award for “Showcases Leadership for Service Partners”

Berlin, Paris, May 19 – Capgemini, one of the foremost providers of consulting, technology and outsourcing services, received this year’s SAP Pinnacle Award for “Showcases Leadership for Service Partners” yesterday at an event held by SAP in Berlin. SAP honors companies that show outstanding excellence in their partnership with SAP and its common clients. Capgemini won the award due to the collaboration with SAP. This demonstrates the Group’s long lasting experience regarding innovating, planning and implementing best of class SAP solutions for its clients.

Beside the win in the “Showcases Leadership for Service Partners” category Capgemini was furthermore shortlisted for the categories “Thought Leadership for Service Partners”, “Collaborative Revenue Contribution” and “Customer Satisfaction”. During the award ceremony which was held just on the eve of the European SAPPHIRE conference in Berlin, SAP highlighted the collaborative work achieved with Capgemini resulting in a number of recent Pinnacle Awards and Special Expertise Partnerships as well as in many successful client projects.

Patrick Nicolet, Group Sales Director, Capgemini, said: “For Capgemini, the pinnacle award is an indication that our collaboration with key partners to the benefit of our joint clients is heading into the right direction. It shows how powerful alliances are becoming in the world of SOA.” And Renate Radon Vice President Global SAP Alliance Executive adds: “We are proud to be amongst the awarded companies yesterday evening. The award honours our partnership with SAP to leverage and fully exploit the investments of our joint clients. I’m looking forward to working with SAP helping our clients to continuously achieve better results in their business.”
